

direct; if any of such officers shall fail to comply with this requisition, such officer shall be deemed to have vacated his office, and be subject to suit by the State for the amount that ought to be paid into the treasury; and no person holding any office created by or existing under this constitution or laws of the State, or holding any appointment under any court in this State, shall receive more than $3,000 a year as a compensation for the discharge of his official duties, except in cases specially provided in this constitution.

Sec. 2. The several courts existing in this State at the time of the adoption of this constitution shall, until superseded under its provisions, continue with like powers and jurisdiction, and in the exercise thereof, both at law and in equity, in all respects as if this constitution had not been adopted; and when said courts shall be so superseded, all causes then depending in said courts shall pass into the jurisdiction of the several courts by which they may be respectively superseded.

Sec. 3. The Governor and all officers, civil and military, now holding office under this State, whether by election or appointment, shall continue to hold, exercise and discharge the duties of their offices according to their present tenure, unless otherwise provided in this constitution until they shall be superseded under its provisions, and until their successors shall be duly qualified.

Sec. 4. If at any election directed by this constitution, any two or more candidates shall have the highest and an equal number of votes, a new election shall be ordered by the Governor, except in cases specially provided for by this constitution.

Sec. 5. In the trial of all criminal cases, the jury shall be the judges of law as well as of fact.

Sec. 6. The right of trial by jury of all issues of fact in civil proceedings in the several courts of law in this State, where the amount in controversy exceeds the sum of five dollars, shall be inviolably preserved.

Sec. 7. All general elections in this State shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in the month of November, in the year in which they shall occur; and the first election of all officers which, under this
